It's important to send us this card today. Here's why...

- 1. We'll send you—FREE of charge—The Parent's Guide to Educational Software for Young Children. The Education Team at Edmark wrote this booklet for you—in response to the many questions we've received from parents about computers, software and young children's education. Drawing on Edmark's 20-year educational history and the research of early childhood experts, the Guide will help you feel more confident about selecting high-quality educational software for your kids. Don't miss it!
